NEW BUSINESS:

Urban Farming and Ag

A memorandum was sent on April 16th, 2019 from Tackett Planning, Inc to the PC about research that was done on other municipalities' rules and regulations regarding Urban Farming.

- It was questioned whether commercial breeding (definition proposed) is a permitted use anywhere in the Borough, and if not, whether it should be. Staff will look into this.
- Chickens, the PC requested additional industry-based information regarding min/max and min area needed per chicken to be sure the standards are appropriate. Max of six was suggested as they usually can lay one egg per day, but minimum of 3 as it is suggested they can become lonely. Regulations must have "forbid roosters and onsite slaughtering"
- Housing chickens was discussed, regulating coops to be no more than 8', making sure height does not interfere with anything
- PC agreed that the existing large animal standards are reasonable and should remain as is.
- Regarding bees, there was general support with notifying surrounding property owners and a permit requirement. PC should review Hatfield Borough's recently adopted standards for bee keeping. Does not require a lot of area, just a line for "fly zone"

- Suggestions for researching the health department regulations to reference their guidelines – county may refer to this as “poultry farming”
- Discussion then about having a stand out front to sell items – should not impede traffic or be on the sidewalk
- Many things to be considered, neighbor signatures, maintain provisions such as noise and odor, reasonable use of space.

Short Term Lodging – Air BNB

- The solicitor provided an overview or the recent court decisions relations to short term lodging, which relates to the entire renting of a single-family dwelling (that is not the primary dwelling of the owner) for short-term lodging purposes. It was noted by a member of PC that there is a model ordinance available on the website of the short-term rental company that should be considered. Staff will develop draft language for discussion at the next meeting.
- There is a difference between living in a home and renting it out versus buying a home to strictly rent it.
- Discussion of different ordinances for renting rooms vs entire homes
