OLD BUSINESS

Tom questioned if the community enjoyed the entertainment provided at Menlo Pool. Josh reported it was successful.

NEW BUSINESS

Skate Park Update – Car wash was done for kids to raise money. They raised enough funds for replacement pieces which was purchased and installed by the Skate Park Committee. They will have a table at the Fall Festival and give out literature to the community on their fund raising efforts. They continue to work on getting the half pipe and pyramid back in the fenced area.

Dog Park Update – Tom reported he presented the brick sale idea to Perkasio Borough Council who were very receptive. There is a Dog Owners Groups, Inc. meeting tomorrow to launch the brick sale.

Menlo Pool Update – Josh reported a successful season with profits in terms of memberships and day passes sold. General issues were poor pool management.

2010 Fall Fest – Josh reported the event is ready to go. Spaces will be painted on the ground Friday October 1. Board Members accepted their time commitments for the day starting with a breakfast meeting at 7:45 at C & C. All jobs needed were filled by the board members with the help of Fire Police and Perkasio borough public works. Josh reported he now has an intern working with him, Katie Paone, who will be helping with the event also.

Family Friday – First Event will be Friday, October 8, 2010. Volunteers for the event were: Nelson and Barbara Hollenbach, Tom Bancroft, and Katie Paone.
