UPDATES TO THE BOROUGH'S ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PLAN

Since 1988, when the core of Perkasie's downtown was destroyed by fire, Perkasie Borough Council has maintained a longstanding focus on Economic Development. The many successes of the Economic Development initiative include the rebuilding of the town center and significant community revitalization: attracting commercial and residential developers, courting new businesses and marketing Perkasie as a great place to live, work and play.

Perkasie Borough is taking another important step toward shaping the future of the town center and commercial districts by engaging Gilmore & Associates to support the creation of an update to the Borough's Economic Development Plan. The plan will update the Economic Development Vision and Strategy chapter of the Borough's Comprehensive Plan, published in 2014, and will set out an Implementation Plan for any recommendations. The plan will set out recommendations for Perkasie's town center and the Borough's other commercial centers, including South Perkasie.

Perkasie Borough Council has appointed a Steering Committee to provide input and direction to the Plan. The Steering Committee is comprised of the Economic Development Committee of Council, five local business owners, and one Borough resident. The Steering Committee will meet regularly during the course of the project, which is expected to be completed by Summer 2026.

A key part of the planning process is public consultation and discussion, and Perkasie Borough invites residents and businesses to participate in a series of public meetings during 2025. The first public meeting was held on Tuesday, April 8th, and more than 40 business owners and residents shared their thoughts about the future of economic development in a group visioning exercise. The exercise identified strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats in economic development in Perkasie Borough. A community survey is under development and a second public meeting will be held later in 2025. Borough staff will also solicit input from local business and civic groups. Gilmore & Associates will conduct a thorough market assessment and take into account the results of the consultation exercises, to create a robust implementation plan.

This project is funded, in part, with a Keystone Communities Planning Grant from the Pennsylvania Department of Community & Economic Development.

Questions about the project to update Perkasie Borough's Economic Development Plan may be directed to community@perkasieborough.org.

LETTER FROM THE MAYOR

Choosing Kindness in Challenging Times

I hope this message finds you well. I want to take a few moments to discuss something that's been on my mind lately — and I'm guessing it's possibly been on yours also.

It's no secret that things feel divided right now. Whether it's the news, social media, or even conversations around the dinner table, it can sometimes feel like we're all talking past each other instead of with each other. And while it's normal to have different opinions — even passionate ones — it's just as important to remember how we treat each other matters just as much as what we believe.

Kindness, respect, and simple human decency should never go out of style, especially when times are tough. We all have a role to play in making our community one where everyone feels heard, valued, and safe — even when we disagree.

So, here's my ask: let's lead with kindness. Let's listen a little more closely, speak a little more thoughtfully, and give each other the benefit of the doubt whenever we can.

We are fortunate to live in this thriving and amazing Borough. The more I am involved as Mayor the more I am impressed with the talents, abilities, and cooperation that I see evidenced in our community. My thoughts in this article are an appeal for us to continue to do well and to remind us to not give in to "cultural craziness".

Perkasie has always been a place where people come together when it matters most. Let's show everyone — and remind ourselves — that no matter what's going on in the wider world, here at home, we choose community over conflict, kindness over division.

Thanks for being part of what makes Perkasie so special. I'm proud to be in this with all of you.

-Mayor Hollenbach

Summer Edition: Protecting Water Resources this Summer

Protecting our Streams and Creeks

Summer has arrived, ushering in longer days and warmer temperatures! Many of us prefer to beat the heat by engaging in activities in and around the water. Whether you enjoy swimming, kayaking, fishing, or simply appreciating the beauty of nature, clean water is essential for recreation and enjoyment. Here are some ways you can help maintain the cleanliness of our waterways this summer:

- Minimize or eliminate the use of fertilizers, herbicides, and pesticides. These lawn chemicals are significant contributors to nitrogen and phosphorus pollution, leading to toxic runoff.
- Opt for native plants in your landscaping. Using native vegetation helps reduce stormwater runoff and requires less watering and fertilization compared to non-native species.
- Install a rain barrel. Positioned at the base of a downspout, a standard rain barrel can capture 55-75 gallons of stormwater runoff from your rooftop, helping to mitigate flooding and erosion.

Supporting Wildlife this Summer

Summer offers a wonderful opportunity to engage with nature and appreciate the beauty of local wildlife. However, as caretakers of our environment, it's important to take measures to ensure the safety and wellbeing of the wildlife who call our area home.

- Dispose of trash responsibly. Outdoor activities and picnics tend to produce litter, which can pose risks to wildlife if not handled appropriately. Always take your trash with you or utilize designated trash bins.
- Look before you mow. Rabbits often create nests in shallow areas of yards, so inspecting for nests prior to mowing can prevent accidental harm to baby rabbits. Turtles are also frequently run over by mowers. Taking a brief stroll around your yard before mowing can help avoid any mishaps.
- Be aware of water sources. Water is vital for wildlife, particularly during the hot summer months. Ensure bird baths and other water sources are clean and accessible, and refrain from using chemicals or pesticides nearby.

Planning A Pool In Perkasio? Here's What Homeowners Need To Know Before Diving In

As summer approaches and temperatures rise, the idea of installing a backyard pool becomes more tempting for many Perkasio residents. But before taking the plunge, it's important to understand the rules, permits, and procedures required to build a pool legally and safely within the Borough.

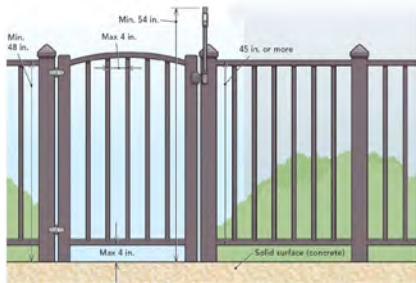

Building Permit Requirements

In Pennsylvania, state regulations classify any pool capable of holding more than 24 inches of water—including inflatable, above-ground, and in-ground types—as requiring a building permit. These regulations fall under the Pennsylvania Uniform Construction Code (UCC), which adheres to the 2018 International Swimming Pool and Spa Code (ISPSC). This code outlines vital safety and structural standards that every pool installation must meet.

In addition to the pool itself, any associated electrical work must follow strict safety guidelines and require a permit. These guidelines include proper Ground Fault Circuit Interrupter (GFCI) protection, accurate grounding and bonding, and a series of inspections at different stages of construction to ensure everything is up to code.

Fences and Barrier Requirements

Safety doesn't stop at wiring. All pools must be enclosed by a barrier or fence that stands at least 48 inches high. Gates need to be self-closing and self-latching, with the latch positioned at least 54 inches above ground level to prevent unsupervised access. For above-ground pools with walls that are 48 inches or higher, the pool walls themselves may serve as the barrier—as long as the access ladder or entry point can be securely locked, removed, or otherwise made inaccessible when not in use. Fences up to six feet tall do not require a separate permit, but any fence exceeding seven feet in height must be reviewed and approved by the Zoning Hearing Board.

Zoning and Grading Requirements

While building permit requirements are governed by the UCC, homeowners in Perkasio must also comply with the Borough's Zoning standards. Like UCC requirements, a zoning permit must be obtained from the Borough for any pool with a water depth exceeding 24 inches. Pools must be located at least 15 feet from the primary structure and must not encroach upon the required side yard setbacks. Site plans must be submitted digitally, and no permit will be issued until all fees are paid and the plans have received formal approval.

Projects that disturb more than 400 square feet of soil will also require a grading and drainage permit. If the project impacts over 1,000 square feet, a more detailed stormwater management plan review must be conducted. Both permit types are reviewed by the Borough Engineer and will require a professional services agreement and escrows fees. Larger-scale installations may even need the approval of the Bucks County Conservation District, depending on the scope of the work.

With pool season fast approaching, Borough officials strongly encourage residents to start the permitting process early. Each year, unnecessary delays arise because homeowners often underestimate the time and complexity involved in submitting paperwork and passing inspections. To get started, residents can download permit applications and review local zoning codes by visiting the Perkasio Borough Building & Zoning Department website or by scanning the QR code on the right. For personalized assistance, staff are available by phone or in person at Borough Hall. Whether you're envisioning a serene backyard retreat or planning splash-filled fun for the family, make sure to prioritize the paperwork. Permits not only safeguard your investment and property but also ensure the safety and compliance of your project from the ground up.

Tree Care In Perkasio: What Homeowners Need To Know

Keeping Our Neighborhoods Safe

As summer moves into full swing, Perkasio Borough is reminding residents that maintaining the trees on their property isn't just good landscaping—it's the law and a matter of public safety.

Under Borough regulations, homeowners are responsible for removing dead or severely diseased trees, particularly if they pose a threat to neighbors or public areas. Trees must also be trimmed to maintain clearances of at least 14 feet above streets and 8 feet above sidewalks. Shrubs and brush should not extend over sidewalks at all.

Failure to meet these requirements may result in warnings or enforcement action by the Borough's Code Enforcement Department.

Tree Debris? Here's How to Handle It:

Curbside Collection On the first Wednesday of each month, the Borough collects branches and brush. Stumps are not accepted at curbside pickup.

Here's what to do:

- Cut branches to lengths under 6 feet
- Tie branches into bundles no larger than 18 inches in diameter
- Ensure the total pile is no larger than the size of a chest freezer
- Call the Borough Office to be added to the monthly pickup list

Recycling Drop-Off Center

For tree stumps and larger loads of branches, head to the Recycling Center. Check the Borough website for center hours and details.

When to Call in the Pros

Trimming large trees or removing them entirely can be dangerous, especially near buildings or power lines. Certified arborists have the tools and training to do the job safely.

If you think your trees are near power lines that need to be removed during the project, please reach out to the Borough's Electric Department for further assistance.

Plus, if your project involves significant land clearing, you might need a permit. Be sure to check with the Zoning Department before getting started.

Take Action Today

If there's a dead or overhanging tree on your property, take care of it now to avoid safety risks and possible penalties. For more information or help: Call the Perkasio Borough Code Enforcement Department.

MESSAGE FROM PERKASIE BOROUGH POLICE DEPARTMENT

311 S. 9TH STREET PERKASIE, PA 18944 (215) 257-6876

In today's fast-paced world, where vehicles are an essential part of daily life, ensuring the safety of motorists, pedestrians, and cyclists is a top priority. Over the past several years, the police department has observed an increase in traffic-related complaints. These complaints are not limited to just Perkasie.

Area Police Chiefs have expressed the same feedback that traffic complaints in all municipalities are increasing.

In an effort to curb complaints and increase safety, the Police Department has started a Traffic Safety Unit. At the forefront of this mission is the Traffic Safety Officer (TSO) — a dedicated professional responsible for maintaining order, enforcing traffic laws, and promoting road safety awareness within communities. The police department has one officer assigned as the TSO to address these concerns.

What Is a Traffic Safety Officer?

A Traffic Safety Officer is a specialized law enforcement officer who receives specialized training and is focused on traffic-related issues. The core mission is to reduce traffic accidents, enforce vehicle and road laws, and educate the public on safe driving practices.

Key Responsibilities

1. Traffic Law Enforcement

TSOs monitor roadways, issue citations for violations (e.g., speeding, running red lights, DUIs), and ensure compliance with traffic regulations. They often conduct patrols in high-traffic or accident-prone areas.

2. Accident Investigation

When crashes occur, Traffic Safety Officers are often first on the scene. They assess the situation, assist injured individuals, document the incident, and investigate the cause. Their reports can be crucial for legal and insurance purposes.

3. Community Education and Outreach

A major part of a TSO's job is prevention. Officers run educational programs in schools, community centers, and local events to raise awareness about topics like seatbelt use, distracted driving, and pedestrian safety.

4. Traffic Flow Management

Our TSO will work closely with Borough Staff and traffic engineers to improve road layouts, signage, and signal systems. They may also help manage traffic during major events, roadwork, or emergencies.

5. Data Collection and Analysis

By analyzing crash data, TSOs help identify patterns and high-risk areas. This information guides public safety campaigns and policy recommendations.

Impact on the Community

The presence of a Traffic Safety Officer can dramatically improve roadway safety. Studies show that areas with proactive traffic enforcement and education see lower accident rates and fatalities. Beyond enforcement, TSOs build trust within communities by engaging in outreach and fostering a culture of responsibility among road users.

The Future of Traffic Safety

As technology evolves, so does the role of the TSO. From using drones and automated traffic systems to analyzing data from smart vehicles, today's officers must stay up to date with digital tools and trends. Additionally, the rise of electric and autonomous vehicles brings new challenges and opportunities for traffic safety professionals.

Pennsylvania is the only State that does not allow Municipal Police to use Radar for speeding enforcement.

Child Safety Seat Inspections

As a community service, the police department has two certified child safety seat installers. Anyone wishing to have their child seat inspected or installed can call the police department at 215-257-6876 to schedule an appointment.

Community Events

During the course of the year, the police department continues to schedule events to engage with the community, such as our Coffee with a Cop events, Chief for the Day, Holiday Christmas Card Design Event and our National Night Out Event in August. The Police Department, along with our full-time Community Services/Crime Victims Advocate, continues to provide guest lectures on personal safety, suicide prevention, and state and local programs for the elderly and victims of crime.

If your organization would like to schedule a guest lecture or learning event with our police staff, please contact the police department at 215-257-6876 and speak with our Community Relations Specialist, Chris Doheny.

The Perkasie Police Department wishes all of our residents a safe and enjoyable summer season.

Bartlett. Caring for trees since 1907.

Spring into Safety: Essential Home Preparedness Tips

As the days get longer and warmer, spring and summer are ideal times to focus on home safety and preparedness. Taking a little time now can help prevent incidents later. Here are some key areas to consider:

Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Alarms: These devices are your first line of defense.

- Test Monthly: Push the test button on each alarm to ensure it's working.
- Change Batteries: If your alarms use replaceable batteries, swap them out at least twice a year (a good practice is with the time changes). Consider upgrading to units with 10-year sealed batteries for less maintenance.
- Check Age: Smoke alarms should be replaced every 10 years and carbon monoxide alarms according to the manufacturer's instructions (usually 5-7 years). Check the date on the back of the unit.
- Proper Placement: Ensure you have alarms on every level of your home, inside each bedroom, and outside sleeping areas.
- Electrical Safety: With more outdoor activity and potentially increased use of fans or air conditioning, be mindful of your electrical system.
- Inspect Cords: Check electrical cords for damage, fraying, or kinks. Replace any damaged cords immediately.

• Avoid Overloading: Do not overload electrical outlets. Use surge protectors for electronics, but be mindful of how many devices are plugged into one outlet.

• Outdoor Cords: If using extension cords outdoors, ensure they are rated for outdoor use and are kept out of puddles and wet conditions.

Outdoor and Yard Safety: Spring cleaning extends to the outdoors.

• Clear Vegetation: Remove dead leaves, grass clippings, and other flammable debris from around your home, especially near the foundation and any outdoor equipment.

• Store Flammables Safely: Keep gasoline, propane tanks, and other flammable liquids stored in approved containers away from heat sources and out of the reach of children.

• Grill Safety: (As a reminder from our previous tip) Always grill at least 10 feet away from structures and clean your grill regularly.

Taking these proactive steps can significantly enhance the safety of your home and loved ones during the spring and early summer months. Stay safe, Perkasio!

AN UPDATE ON PERKASIE NATIONAL HISTORIC DISTRICT PROJECT

For the past eight years, Perkasio Borough Council has been working to meet one of the goals in its comprehensive plan: creating a Perkasio Historic District to be listed in the National Register of Historic Places. On May 5, 2025, Borough Council approved hiring a consultant to collaborate with its historical committee to complete the historic district process. The expected project completion date is February 2026.

After Perkasio submits a final application to the Pennsylvania State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO), the state in conjunction with Perkasio Borough will hold public meetings to gather input. If the SHPO approves the proposed district at a public hearing in Harrisburg, the National Park Service will list the district.

Historic Districts and preservation committees are powerful economic development tools. In Bucks County, 31 of its 54 municipalities have historic districts, commissions, review boards or committees. Quakertown, Souderton, Plumstead, Richland, Tinicum, Chalfont and Nockamixon all have historic districts or committees in our area.

Often, housing values are higher in historic districts. According to a study by the mortgage lender Amres in 2024, "historical neighborhoods have a significant impact on real estate value. They are attractive to buyers who value distinct architectural styles, mature landscapes, and a sense of community."

One thing you will not see with a Perkasio Historic District is a Historical Architecture Review Board (or HARB). HARBS can place requirements for repairs and changes on historic properties. When the Borough started this project, a citizen committee determined that a HARB was not appropriate for Perkasio.

Instead, a better option is a historical committee that works with residents and businesses on projects, such as creating positive incentives for preservation.

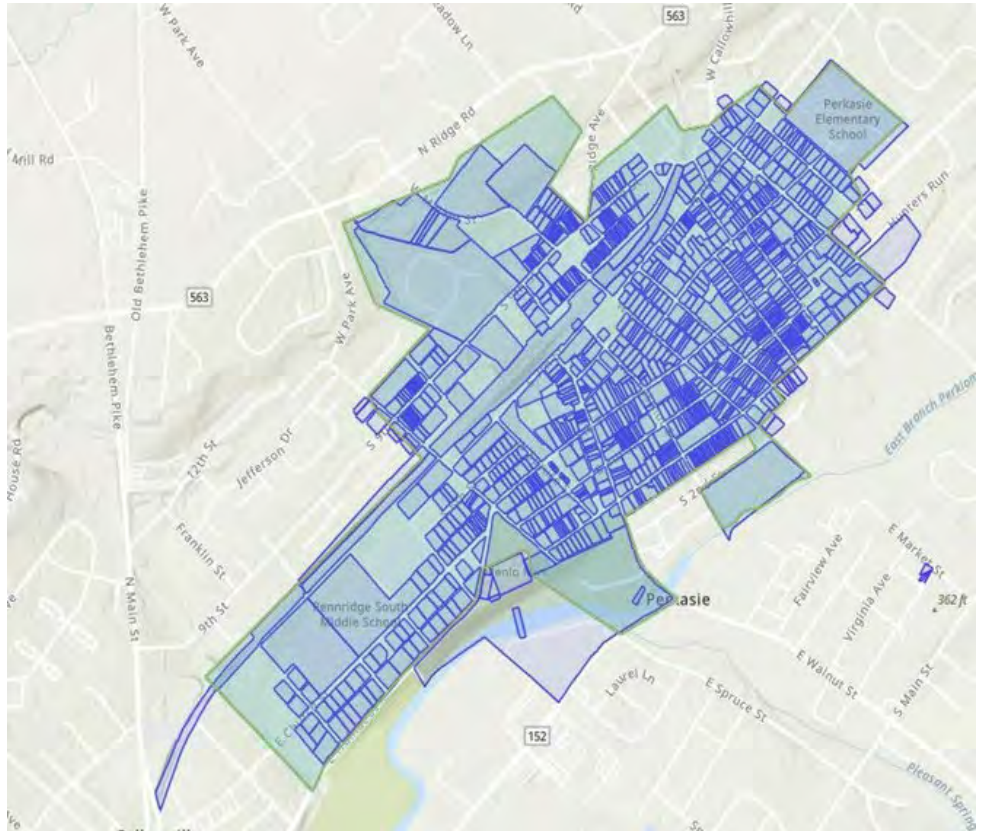

That group, the Perkasio Borough Council Historical Committee, submitted its original Historic District application in 2020, focusing on the Perkasio Old Towne area. In March 2021, the SHPO determined Perkasio was eligible for a district, but it said the true historic district should be twice as big. The SHPO defined a district that runs the full length of Third Street to Sellersville's border, up Park Avenue to the two cemeteries on the hill, and over to Callowhill down to Third Street. In all, there are 911 homes and businesses in the district (or 86%) that are "historic" as contributing to a National Historic District.

Another economic benefit of historic districts are federal tax credits for buildings. The Delbar project used this 20% historic tax credit, taken over five years, to make their project happen. Perkasio has many historic buildings that could be re-used as restaurants, housing, and business spaces. The tax credit promotes adaptive reuse and adds significant resale values to properties that are credit eligible. The state has also doubled the amount for façade grants to $100,000 for municipalities that qualify.

For all this to happen, the state had to determine that Perkasio has historic value. Just based on its architecture, Perkasio easily qualifies. But Perkasio's culture is a huge part of its story. People may not know the slides used for the Salk polio vaccine were both made and invented in Perkasio, as was the fabric that covered Neil Armstrong's boot when he became the first person to step on the Moon. Or that Perkasio residents, working from home, made all the baseballs used in the major leagues for three decades.

These were all small businesses started by residents or people who moved to Perkasio, often working in their garages after they finished their full-time jobs. Perkasio has a long history of businesses innovation, which is an important part of its legacy. Our hope is to spur more innovation by the adaptive reuse of historic properties, and help residents and taxpayers preserve their homes and businesses, with the Historic District as a starting point.

From the Perkasio Borough Council Historical Committee: Scott Bomboy (chair), Steve Rose, David Weaver, and David Worthington.

Please Don't Blow Grass in the Street!

When mowing your lawn please refrain from blowing grass into the street. Please blow it back into you yard. If blown into the street, grass clippings will find their way to storm drains and may clog them during heavy rain events that would contribute to localized flooding. The grass clippings in the street are also a hazard to motorcycles and bicycle riders.
