JIM PURCELL MEMORIAL AWARD HONORS LANDIS MARKET AND PERKASIE FIRE COMPANY

Perkasie Borough proudly presented the 2025 Jim Purcell Memorial Award to two pillars of the community—Landis Market and the Perkasio Fire Company—during the annual Community Day celebration held in Lenape Park on June 28. The award, established in 2024 in memory of long-serving Borough Council member Jim Purcell, recognizes individuals and organizations whose contributions reflect Purcell's legacy of service, commitment, dedication, and integrity.

Landis Market, a third-generation, family-owned grocery business, has served the Perkasio community with consistent generosity and warmth for many years. In addition to providing high-quality food and friendly service, Landis supports more than 200 local nonprofit organizations and makes weekly donations to area food banks. "They've been a fixture in Perkasio for decades," said Mayor Jeff Hollenbach. "We're grateful for the way Landis continues to show up for our residents and make Perkasio a better place to live."

The Perkasio Fire Company, an all-volunteer organization founded in 1890, is currently celebrating its 135th year of continuous service. With nearly 100 active volunteers, the company provides critical emergency response services throughout the Pennridge region. "They have been a bedrock of our community safety and well-being," said Mayor Hollenbach. "Their unwavering commitment and courage embody the very spirit of what Jim Purcell stood for."

Both recipients expressed deep appreciation for the recognition. "We're humbled to be part of something so meaningful," said Scott Landis, Chairman of Landis Market. "This community means everything to us." Fire Chief Jason Trotter reflected on the award's namesake, saying, "Jim was always an advocate for the fire company and a true leader in Perkasio. It's an honor to accept this award in his name."

LETTER FROM THE MAYOR

YOUTH SPORTS IN THE COMMUNITY

I recently read this quote supporting the value of sports from <https://leagues.bluesombrero.com> which said:

"A growing body of research literature finds that in addition to improved physical health, sport plays a primarily positive role in youth development, including improved academic achievement, higher self-esteem, fewer behavioral problems, and better psychosocial outcomes. Many studies focus on the effects of sport on the five "C's"—competence, confidence, connections, character, and caring—which are considered critical components of positive youth development. It has long been thought that the many facets of playing sport—the discipline of training, learning teamwork, following the leadership of coaches and captains, learning to lose—provide lifelong skills for athletes."

As your Mayor, I have a strong desire to see our children have a positive sports experience in their formative years. We care deeply about our children in this community and want to see them succeed. Here are a few reminders that will hopefully help us to keep perspective on the experiences of our children.

1. Be positive, encouraging, praise good efforts and improvement, and try to keep criticism to a minimum. Let the coach make the corrections. Our children need places where everything is okay where they do not have to hear about faults and bad plays. Do you know what period of time players, especially young players, dread the most? Answer: The car ride home after a loss or a poor performance. Do you know what statement players want to hear most from others? Answer: "I love to watch you play!"

2. It will also help to remind yourself that their activity is their activity. Remember that you want to support them, to let them know that you are on their side.
3. Be supportive of the coaches, be aware of how you are talking about them in front of children. Negative comments will undoubtedly adversely affect your child's attitude as well as their effort in the future. If there is a disagreement or a problem, discuss this with the coach privately. These things are just as "contagious" among adults. Help the team by supporting... not tearing down.
4. Children learn sportsmanship and leadership (be it good or bad) from us. My experience has shown that the best leaders I have had on past teams have consistently come from positive parents.
5. "Honor the game." You can do this by being respectful toward officials and opposing coaches and players. Focus on cheering for your team... not cheering AGAINST the other team.
6. Avoid being too much of a fan of other players. What is meant by this statement? Children are not particularly interested in hearing how good someone else is... or what some other player does...or how well they do it! Try to be a fan of the team and the child you support.

The bottom line on the value of sport is that it should be - FUN. If your child participates in a sports activity, my hope is that these suggestions have some value for you, and that we can help our children have a positive experience in their activity. It is important for their own development and for the Community!

-Mayor Hollenbach

REMINDERS FROM THE PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

FALL LEAF COLLECTION

Fall leaf collection usually starts around mid-October into November. Rake leaves into street along the curb line. Do not block or clog storm drains.

Check the Borough website, social media, or call the Borough office for start and stop dates for leaf collection. There is no set schedule for leaf pickup. The crews follow a set route and pick up leaves as scheduling allows. The Borough crew will collect leaves one time in the spring. The date will be announced early in the year based on the end of winter weather. The crews will only travel the collection route one time for the spring collection.

Do not put leaves in the roadway or block storm drains during any other part of the year. Doing so can cause a very dangerous situation for drivers, and also possibly flood the roadway by clogging the storm drains.

CHRISTMAS TREE COLLECTION

Christmas trees (without wire) are collected with brush pick-up on the first Wednesday in January, and on the third and fourth Fridays in January. Please check the Borough website and social media or call the Borough office for any updates to this schedule.

Fall Edition: Bringing Biodiversity Back to Your Yard!

The Environmental Cost of Lawns

Despite looking lush and green, traditional turf grass lawns provide little to no environmental benefits. In fact, they often have detrimental effects on the quality of local waterways, wildlife habitat, and the air that we breathe. Here are some of the ways that lawns can harm the environment:

- Lack of Biodiversity - lawns are typically made up of a single, non-native grass species that does not provide shelter or food for wildlife.
- Increased Water Usage - lawns consume more water than native landscapes leading to water waste and increased runoff.
- Increased Carbon Footprint - the maintenance of lawns requires the use of gas powered lawn equipment that contributes to air pollution and greenhouse gas emissions.
- Use of Harmful Pesticides / Fertilizer - these chemicals can harm local wildlife, contaminate water resources, and lead to the growth of algae that can be harmful to humans and pets.

learn more at: www.perkiomenwatershed.org

Swapping Turf Grass for Native Gardens

Want to swap your high maintenance lawn for something more colorful, environmentally friendly, and easy to manage? Here are some ways to add biodiversity back into your yard:

- Decrease your lawn area - smothering grass with cardboard is an easy way to kill turf and add garden area to your yard. Late summer / fall is the perfect time to remove turf and add native plants!
- Reduce / eliminate your household pesticide / herbicide use - use environmentally friendly alternatives or eliminate lawn care products all together!
- Plant with a variety of native species - native plants are vital to the survival of pollinators, birds and other wildlife. When planting your garden, aim to use species that bloom throughout the year as well as a mix of perennials, shrubs and trees!
- Add a bird, bat or pollinator house - providing safe areas for wildlife to rest and raise their young is a great way to increase the diversity of wildlife that call your yard home!

ZONING AND CODE DEPARTMENT

COZY FIRES & S'MORES NIGHTS – THE PERKASIE WAY!

Crisp leaves, chilly nights, and the smell of wood smoke—fall is here, and it's time to get cozy by the fire. But before you break out the marshmallows and pumpkin spice lattes, make sure your autumn flames are friendly and legal under Perkasio Borough Code, Chapter 92, Article II: Outdoor Fires and Burning.

Here's What You Can Do:

- Grill & Chill: Fire up your grill, fireplace, or barbecue pit and cook up your favorite fall feast.
- Chiminea Vibes: Small wood fires in chimineas or screened fire containers are allowed.
- Special Events: Bonfires or campfires for fall festivals or spooky season gatherings are welcome with written approval from the Borough Manager. Application can be found on our website and submitted to admin@perkasieborough.org.

Fire Fun Rules to Remember:

- Fires must be in noncombustible containers.
- Paper and cardboard should be recycled and is not allowed to be burned.

- Stay at least 15 feet from buildings and property lines.
- Fires must be attended at all times with a hose or dirt ready to put them out.
- Skip burning on windy days, during drought, or when air quality is poor.
- Keep smoke to a minimum—neighbors should smell pumpkin spice, not smoke clouds!

The "Don't Even Think About It" Part:

Violating these rules can lead to fines up to $600 or even 30 days in jail. Yikes.

So grab your flannels, invite your friends, and enjoy those crisp autumn nights—safely, legally, and with plenty of s'mores (because s'mores make everything better).

PREVENTING FLOODS STARTS IN YOUR YARD: SWALE CARE MATTERS

They may look like shallow grassy ditches, but swales are working behind the scenes every time it rains. In Perkasio, these gently sloped channels are an important part of the Borough's stormwater management system, designed to move rainwater safely, reduce flooding, and protect local streams.

What Are Swales?

A swale is a shallow, sloped area—often grass-lined—that collects and directs rainwater. Instead of rushing straight into storm drains or flooding nearby yards, stormwater flows through these channels, slowing down enough to filter out sediment and allow some water to soak into the ground. In neighborhoods, swales are often found along property lines, roadways, and near stormwater basins.

What the Borough Requires

According to Perkasie Borough Code Chapter 158, swales must be part of approved stormwater plans and maintained so they function properly. Homeowners and property managers are responsible for keeping swales free of obstructions like leaves, branches, and yard waste; repairing any erosion or bare spots to prevent washouts; preserving approved vegetation and structural features like check dams; and, if required, submitting an annual MS4 Inspection Report to the Borough.

Common Homeowner Mistakes

Even well-meaning property owners sometimes create problems:

- Filling in or leveling swales to make yards easier to mow or to install landscaping.
- Planting trees or shrubs in swales, which can block flow and cause erosion around roots.
- Using swales as compost piles for grass clippings, branches, or mulch.
- Installing decorative rocks, sheds or other structures that redirect water onto neighboring properties.

These changes might seem minor but can lead to flooding, erosion, or code violations.

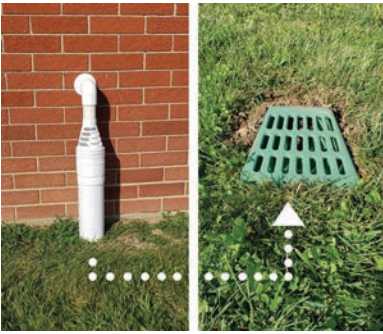

Seasonal Care and Quick Tips

Fall is one of the most important times to check swales, as leaves, pine needles, and yard debris can block water flow and cause standing water during winter thaws or spring storms. During yard cleanup, clear debris, maintain healthy vegetation to prevent erosion, inspect for blockages after heavy rain, avoid altering or filling in swales without Borough approval, and remember—proper maintenance protects both your property and surrounding homes.

For more information about swales and other stormwater management systems, visit the Borough's Stormwater Management page on our website.

ZONING AND CODE DEPARTMENT

PROTECTING YOUR PROPERTY & YOUR COMMUNITY: UNDERSTANDING SUMP PUMP DISCHARGE RULES

Sump pumps are an essential tool in preventing basement flooding and managing stormwater on private properties. However, if not installed or maintained properly, they can create serious problems for neighbors and the community—including property damage, nuisance runoff, and dangerous winter ice conditions.

To help avoid disputes and promote proper stormwater management, it's important to understand local regulations and your responsibilities as a homeowner.

What You Can't Do: Discharging Onto Neighboring Properties

It is not permitted to direct sump pump discharge:

- Onto neighboring properties
- Into the street, sidewalk, or public right-of-way
- Into another property owner's drain or sewer
- Onto boulevards, ditches, or municipal lands
- Within 5 feet of your property line

Doing so may result in fines, violations, or mandatory corrective action.

What You Should Do Instead:

- Direct discharge to your own lawn or garden where the water can infiltrate safely.
- Use an underground infiltration system or seepage pit to manage discharge properly.

- Install a diffuser or splash block to prevent erosion and spread flow.
- Check your system seasonally to ensure it's not discharged across sidewalks or driveways—especially before winter, when water can freeze and become a hazard.

If you're planning to install or modify a sump pump, a construction permit is required for new sump pumps, and noncompliant systems must be brought up to code at the property owner's expense. Construction Permit applications can be found on our website.

What to Do If a Neighbor's Sump Pump is Causing Problems:

1. Start with a friendly conversation. In many cases, the neighbor may not be aware that their sump pump is creating issues.
2. Document the issue. Take photos or videos of the discharge and note dates, especially if damage or hazardous conditions are occurring.
3. Contact the Borough. If the problem continues, reach out to the Zoning or Code Enforcement Office. The Borough may inspect the property and require corrective action if there is a violation.

Take Responsibility. Be a Good Neighbor.

Improper sump pump discharge can lead to erosion, mold, and costly repairs—not just for neighbors, but for public infrastructure too. By managing your sump pump responsibly, you're doing your part to keep our neighborhoods safe, dry, and neighborly.

MESSAGE FROM THE PERKASIE ELECTRIC DEPARTMENT

SAFER SCHOOL ZONES WITH A BRIGHTER APPROACH

In a push to improve safety around schools, Perkasie Borough Electric Dept, working in conjunction with the Perkasie Police and Public Works departments, are embracing a simple yet impactful change: replacing old and outdated school warning signs with high-visibility (hi-vis) signage. These brightly colored, reflective signs, incorporated with a new "15 MPH" LED display, are designed to grab drivers' attention faster—especially in low light or poor weather—helping to protect students during peak traffic times.

Hi-vis signs don't just look sharper—they work smarter. By standing out in busy environments, they prompt quicker reactions and encourage safer driving speeds. This was a small and cost-effective project, making them a smart upgrade for our community investing in child safety.

MESSAGE FROM PERKASIE BOROUGH POLICE DEPARTMENT

311 S. 9TH STREET PERKASIE, PA 18944 (215) 257-6876

One of the most frequent complaints received by the police department from our local residents are calls for speeding vehicles. The police department primarily uses non-descript equipment to analyze vehicle speeds based on the type of vehicle and direction. Once it is determined that a speeding issue exists, the police department may deploy visible speed trailers that flash vehicle speeds to slow traffic. The police department will also utilize non-radar speed timing devices to measure vehicle speeds and conduct traffic stops.

Pennsylvania Municipal Police Officers are the only officers in the nation who are not permitted to use RADAR or Laser Speed Detection. Municipal Police in Pennsylvania must rely on electronic non-radar devices to enforce our local speed limits. In certain cases, this requires a minimum recommended distance to time vehicle speeds. In a Borough setting, this limits certain areas where municipal police can safely and effectively enforce our local speed limits.

In Pennsylvania, the law requires that the police must allow up to ten miles per hour over the speed limit to issue a citation if the posted speed limit is less than 55 miles per hour, with certain exceptions.

For over thirty years, our Commonwealth elected officials have entertained legislation to change the law to allow municipal police to utilize RADAR, and each time, the changes fail to be enacted. Some argue that Municipal Police will use RADAR as a revenue generator for municipalities; however, introduced legislation has placed caps on the fine money received by municipal governments for speeding fines using RADAR.

Speeding and traffic enforcement is not a funding generator for municipalities; in fact, many traffic violations have a pre-determined basic fine of $25.00. If a driver is found guilty or pleads guilty to the citation, the municipality only receives half of the fine money ($12.50). The rest of the costs listed on the citation go to the County and the Commonwealth. If an officer attends a hearing due to a not-guilty plea, the municipality incurs a financial loss due to paying the officer to attend the hearing and testify.

Speeding and traffic enforcement are about safety and saving lives, as one of the primary causes of traffic deaths and serious injuries is speeding. The Police Department encourages our local residents to reach out to their Commonwealth elected officials to pass a RADAR bill to provide our Municipal Police with the modern tools they need to keep our local roads safe.

In other news, the Police Department would like to share that recently, Chris Doheny, the Police Department Civilian Community Relations Specialist, received certification to inspect and install car safety seats for young children. The department now has two certified employees to conduct these inspections and complete installs. If you would like to have a car seat installed or checked for proper fit, please call the police department administrative office at 215-257-6876 to schedule an appointment.

And lastly, as we head into in school season, the police department reminds drivers to be alert for student walkers and stopped school buses.

BLOOM FLOWER CO. WEDDING FLORAL STUDIO FINDS A NEW HOME IN PERKASIE

Congratulations to Perkasia's Bloom Flower Co. on the exciting move of their wedding floral studio to a brand-new space right here in the Borough!

Bloom Flower Co. is moving just around the corner, from 7th St to a new studio at the corner of N. 5th St and W. Market St. Known for their stunning wedding arrangements and thoughtful designs, the team will continue crafting beautiful floral pieces in their Perkasia studio before delivering them to weddings across Bucks County and beyond.

Bloom's decision to stay and grow in Perkasia highlights the strength and charm of our local business community. "We're thrilled to share that we're relocating to a new space right here in Perkasia Borough," shared Kelly Laustsen, owner of Bloom. "We can't wait to keep creating and bringing our floral designs to life for couples all over the region."

We wish Bloom Flower Co. continued success in their new studio and thank them for choosing Perkasia as the place to grow their business and serve the community. Follow their Instagram and Facebook accounts for examples of Kelly's beautiful floral designs.

NEW MURAL BREATHES LIFE INTO HISTORIC FREIGHT CAR

Perkasia Borough is proud to announce the completion of a vibrant new mural on the long-abandoned SEPTA freight car at the corner of N. 8th Street and W. Market Street. Created by renowned artist Carrie Kingsbury of Promiseland Murals and installed with the skilled assistance of the Perkasia Public Works Department, the mural transforms a once-blighted site into a striking gateway to the Borough's historic downtown.

The mural's design, reviewed with input from local residents and Borough Council members, celebrates some of Perkasia's best-loved landmarks and events, and strong sense of community. "It was an honor to create something that showcases what people love most about Perkasia," said Kingsbury. "This mural tells a story of connection, history, and celebration, and I hope it brings a smile to everyone who sees it."

The project was funded in part through the Visit Bucks County Tourism Grant Program, with additional support from Perkasia Borough. The Borough partnered with the Perkasia Town Improvement Association to secure funding and to manage the project from concept through installation.

"This project embodies what makes Perkasia special—our ability to honor the past while creating something fresh and inviting for future generations," said Kelly Laustsen, Borough Councilperson and Chair of Perkasia's Economic Development Committee. "The mural not only revitalizes a key entrance to the Borough but also highlights our growing collection of public art that draws residents and visitors alike."

Located adjacent to Perkasia's historic freight station and near the award-winning Farmers Market, the mural is expected to become a focal point for community pride and tourism. Its installation is part of a larger vision to redevelop the site for recreational and cultural use, strengthening the connection between Perkasia's heritage and its vibrant future.

HIGHLY MYSTICAL CREATIONS RETURNS HOME TO PERKASIE

Congratulations to Highly Mystical Creations, returning to Perkasio Borough with a new location at 21 N. 7th Street. Owner, Hope, first opened Highly Mystical Creations in a small space on Callowhill Street and relocated after a year because the business was growing and needed more space. The store has spent a couple years in Souderton but is moving back into the Borough into the larger space on N. 7th St, occupied until recently by the Bloom Flower Co.

Highly Mystical Creations offers a curated selection of handcrafted candles, crystals and gemstones, incense and herbal blends, as well as spiritual and metaphysical tools. The shop also features locally made art and serves as a gathering place for workshops and events focused on mindfulness, energy work and creative expression.

A soft opening is planned for September, with a grand opening celebration to follow in October. Both events will offer residents and visitors an opportunity to explore the new space and learn more about the store's offerings.

We welcome Highly Mystical Creations back to Perkasio and look forward to their continued contribution to the Borough's vibrant small business community.

PERKASIE BOROUGH CONTINUES WORK ON ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PLAN UPDATE

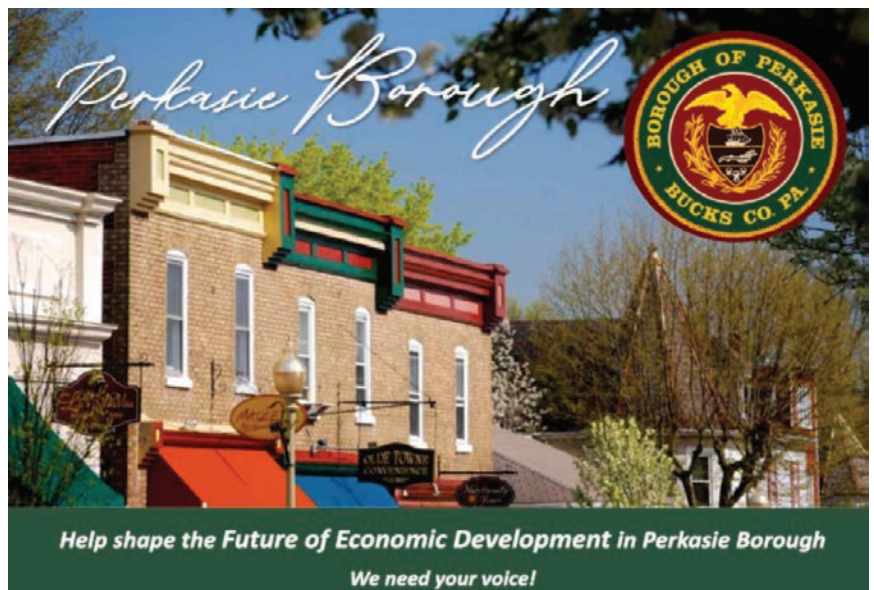

Perkasie Borough Council has a long history of prioritizing economic development. Since the devastating 1988 fire that destroyed important commercial properties in the downtown, Council has worked hard to revitalize the Borough—attracting new businesses, redeveloping vacant parcels, supporting housing growth, and marketing Perkasio as a vibrant place to live, work, and visit. Decades of effort have delivered significant successes, from the redevelopment of the America House and Rams Pint House to the creation of the Pennridge Airport Business Park and the addition of more than 425 new housing units.

Building on these achievements, Borough Council is now updating Perkasio's Economic Development Plan. This project will reassess the recommendations of the 2014 Comprehensive Plan and set a course for the next five years of strategic growth. With funding support from a Keystone Communities Grant, the Borough has engaged Gilmore & Associates and formed a Steering Committee of local business owners and residents to help guide the process.

The first two Steering Committee meetings have focused on updating the Borough's economic vision, analyzing business and retail trends, inventorying commercial property and businesses, and gathering input through a community-wide survey that saw strong engagement from residents. Discussions have highlighted the need to strengthen the town center, address commercial vacancies, expand dining and shopping options, and leverage Perkasio's growing arts and cultural assets while maintaining the Borough's unique character.

"This update is about building on our long-standing commitment to economic vitality," said Kelly Laustsen, Chair of Perkasio Borough Council's Economic Development Committee. "Perkasie has seen incredible growth and success over the past three decades. Now we are asking our residents and business owners to help shape the next chapter so we can continue to thrive while preserving the qualities that make our community special."

Next steps include developing a conceptual market analysis, developing a draft vision and positioning statement for Perkasio Borough, and drafting a five-year strategic plan. Public participation will remain central to the process, with more opportunities for residents and businesses to provide input as the project moves forward.
