PROCLAMATION: NATIONAL SAFE DIGGING MONTH

Mayor Hollenbach read a proclamation declaring April as National Safe Digging Month in the Borough.

PUBLIC FORUM

Resident Dan Meares from 513 Penny Lane approached Council to advocate for the wonderful experience he's had at Penny Lane with his family and stated that he's looking forward to solidifying the life that they've had taking care of the land and the grass behind where they live so his family can play there, and other families in the neighborhood can have their graduation parties there, and play lacrosse and kick ball. Mr. Meares added that it's been a great experience and he's looking forward to having things ironed out and clear. Council President Schilling asked Mr. Meares if he's been the one mowing and maintaining it, and he confirmed that he has, and explained that when he purchased the home, the former owner, who was in his early 80s, made it very clear that he wanted him to continue doing that, and he is happy to do it.

Resident Kim Bedillion from 123 South Third Street thanked Council for their sacrifice of time that they give for the two meetings a month, plus the prep time, and stated that she appreciates what they are doing for the Community. She asked that, in the area of increased transparency, if Council would consider live streaming the meetings and uploading them to the You Tube channel, adding that it would increase community engagement.

Ms. Bedillion then thanked Council for uploading information about the solar project to the website, stating that she's referred a lot of people in her area to it and it's very helpful. She then asked if it was updated, because she hadn't seen anything that had happened during the March meetings on there. Ms. Bedillion then asked several questions about the solar project, including how much the feasibility study has costed the taxpayers so far, and if that total can be added to the website; does Council know a total for what the Borough would be eligible for; regarding the early July deadline, what exactly has to take place to qualify for those credits – the purchase of supplies, shovels in the ground, does the project have to be complete; given Pennsylvania's climate, are you also considering solar operations from other parts of the country where they have more extended daylight hours; would Council consider inviting the community to some sort of hearing about the solar project.

Council President Schilling stated that live streaming has been one of the priorities and asked the Borough Manager for an update. Ms. Coaxum stated that staff met with a contractor and reviewed different options for cameras, adding that they should have a proposal to us for Council to consider in the next couple of weeks. Ms. Coaxum added that it will then be a matter of logistics as far as getting it in the budget and getting it installed.

Council President Schilling stated that we will look into getting the solar project information updated on the website and getting the cost information on there, and explained that the Borough would have to break ground by July on a project if we want 4 years to finish it and get the tax credit; otherwise, it would have to be completed by December to get the tax credit. Ms. Schilling added that we will be talking about two other options tonight for power purchases. Ms. Schilling asked for an update on having a hearing.

Ms. Coaxum explained that we've been giving updates during the Council meetings and that pretty soon we should have enough information to have the results of the feasibility study with real costs from vendors and estimates of construction, which should be here in the next couple of weeks to present to everyone. Ms. Schilling added that one of our key things is making sure it makes sense cost-wise and making sure we understand all of the costs, and further explained that we had to do this analysis quickly because of the project deadline and because we can save a lot more money.

Heather Armidio from PBR Productions at 514 West Walnut Street stated that she is here to answer questions about Porch Fest, and stated that the idea is a couple of people, some are here tonight, have put in block party permit applications and are going to be responsible for their own area, and will be responsible for their own music, adding that she doesn't even know exactly what they're doing. Ms. Armidio added that she's only helping out a few places, the Owls Club being one, which is on the other side of town and has a big location in the back and should have plenty of space. Ms. Armidio stated that a few other places that will have music in town are the Rams on their rooftop, St. Stephen's Church, and over at Patchwork, the Fourth Street Mennonite Church, adding that those are the places that she's aware of who are going to do music. She stated that she knows there are other places that want to, but she's not sure what everybody's doing; she stated that she knows we're almost 30 days out, but she still doesn't know exactly what is going on in some places. Ms. Armidio stated she's not closing down streets, she's not asking to do any of that, which is why she didn't put in a permit application, because she wasn't going to close down anything – no port-a-potties, no main stages, no vendors, none of the things that they've had in the past.

Council President Schilling asked what the date is, and Ms. Armidio stated that it's May 9th, from 12:00 pm to 6:00 pm.

Council Member Weaver asked if the event was going to be advertised, and what the outreach would be to the larger community. Ms. Armidio stated that she's going to advertise small, 30 days out, which is what Doylestown did last year for their Porch Fest, so not much advertising, as compared to what she's done in the past, only a few announcements just to let people know where bands are going to be located.

Council Vice-President Cornelius clarified that it seems like the businesses are taking care of their own locations, and it will be their responsibility to ensure the necessary safety for their event and area. Ms. Cornelius further clarified that those without block parties are separate, and Ms. Armidio confirmed that it's all separate, she's just helping, she's not facilitating this one and it's not her overall project, it's more like everybody's project, which is why she doesn't know what's going on. She added that everybody's just kind of piecing it together. Ms. Schilling clarified that Ms. Armidio is helping to find bands if someone wants music, and Ms. Armidio confirmed only at the locations she mentioned.

Council Member Weaver asked Council Member Benner if the Public Safety Committee is okay with this, and if they discussed it. Ms. Benner confirmed that the Committee did discuss it and did have some information when they met last Monday, and had no other questions. She added that she did talk to Ms. Armidio after that meeting as well. Ms. Benner added that the only person she would want information from is the Chief, if he has any questions or concerns.

Council President Schilling stated that people love Porch Fest and that it's nice to have it happening in Perkasio again, in some form. Ms. Armidio stated that hopefully we can get it back to what it used to be, that would be the overall goal, or at least some version of what it was.

Council Member Laustsen asked Ms. Armidio, that, if someone previously had a band on their porch and reaches out to her, since it's called Porch Fest, what direction she is giving them. Ms. Armidio stated that she will direct residential porches to do the same thing she said to the businesses – that if they wanted to put in a request they would have to put in their own request for a block party.

Resident John Gatter from 601 West Spruce Street stated that he's confused about Porch Fest, because he's seen some announcements but doesn't know as a resident what to expect. Mr. Gatter stated that he's been to the Doylestown one and has been to the one that we had before, and as a person just wandering about at the one we had here a couple of years ago, they did have streets blocked off, and in his opinion, they needed to be blocked off because people wandered out into the street. He added that it seems nebulous, and he doesn't see anything definitive in terms of providing residents with what to expect. He heard the public safety comment but asked if public safety has really been considered for this.

Council President Schilling stated that there are 2 agenda items that will be considered later this evening that both have road closures, at Mystic Ways and Vita Essentials Salon, and Mr. Gatter stated that even just listening to how it was organized, bands can sporadically pop up, and he asked how the Borough would accommodate for all of that.

Council Vice-President Cornelius clarified that Ms. Armidio organized the event a couple of years ago, and since then, there has not been an official Perkasio Porch Fest that is occurring; however, there are businesses and many people within the community that have ways they would like to have "Porch Fest" return, but as a Doylestown size with road shutting down. Ms. Cornelius clarified that these individual businesses, like the Owls Club, will be doing it on their own property, without shutting down a street, therefore, they don't require an application to do that. However, both Mystic Ways & the salon have requested it and are going to have bands at their location, so it's a Porch Fest-esque that we're trying to build again but it's not on residential streets, it's on somebody's porch. It's not a Perkasio Porch Fest, the businesses are taking that on, so it's not truly a Porch Fest.

Council Member Worthington commented that it is being advertised on social media as Perkasio Porch Fest, adding that he saw posts two hours ago, so he just wanted to let Council know. Council Member Laustsen stated that she thinks the confusion might be within the name, because from the history of the event, we have had bands on porches. Ms. Laustsen asked Mr. Gatter, if, when he went to the Doylestown Porch Fest, if people were playing on porches, or mostly at businesses, or a mixture of both. Mr. Gatter stated that they were all over the place, and so were the people, and they went right out into the street. He added that what he's hearing doesn't have a lot of structure to it. Ms. Laustsen clarified that what she's hearing from what Ms. Armidio is explaining to Council is that there are going to be businesses hosting music in their businesses, and there are not going to be any residences popping up with music. Ms. Schilling clarified that was what Ms. Armidio just said, and that if people want to have music, they have to apply for a residential block party permit, if they want to do anything. Mr. Gatter stated that it sounds like potential for a lot of people without a lot of structure within the community. Ms. Schilling reiterated the four locations where the music will be – the Owls, the Ram, St. Stephen's and the Perkasio Mennonite Church – and also the 2 businesses who have block party applications, and that this was our chance for feedback. Mr. Gatter clarified that the event won't cost the taxpayers any extra money for police presence or road closures, and Ms. Schilling stated that would be up to Mystic Ways and the salon.

PRESIDENT'S REMARKS

Council President Schilling stated that we need to amend the agenda to add an item regarding Financial Transmission Rights, adding that there's a purchase that often happens and normally we can't vote on it because by the time we get the information, it pops up last minute, but we happened to get a report back today, at 4:00 pm this afternoon, so since the timing works out, she proposed to amend the agenda to add that to the Public Utility Committee so Council could review it and it's public.

The Solicitor stated that Council would need a motion and second and vote to add it to the agenda. Upon a motion by Schilling, seconded by Green, Council unanimously agreed to amend the agenda to add this item.

Ms. Schilling stated that, to her, government is balancing how much you control what happens in town and how much do you allow businesses opportunities to succeed, adding that to her, the question with Porch Fest, the way it's being run this time, is how much do you require a permit for something that's more a marketing campaign, which is how this was, and how much do you offer, and is a special events permit required.

PUBLIC WORKS COMMITTEE

Upon a motion by Laustsen, seconded by Worthington, Council unanimously authorized the Solicitor and Borough Manager to extend a license agreement to the residents of Penny Lane encroaching on Borough property with language allowing the encroachment until the sale of the property to be approved by Borough Council at a future meeting.

Discuss Purchase of Financial Transmission Rights

Council Member Green provided an explanation to Council about Financial Transmission Rights (FTRs), which were discussed with GDS today. Mr. Green further explained that an FTR means that we have to get power from one place, to ours, and we are in a PPL zone, which is a certain rate. An FTR is a congestion either credit, or a debt. Usually, it's a credit. In high congestion times like January and February when there was a lot of demand, we were charged for this FTR. Usually in the last 10 years, we would receive a credit. This plan that AMP is offering is to purchase FTRs to hedge against any risk, like what happened in January & February with high demand. Mr. Green stated that we decided we like the credits, so to purchase FTRs at a premium, you could potentially lose those credits and pay a lot for premium, but you will be protected by events like Winter Storm Fern.

The Electric Department Superintendent provided further explanation about FRTs and explained that the staff received information this afternoon that requires action by tomorrow, which is why we brought it to Council.

Upon a motion by Schilling, seconded by Cornelius, Council unanimously supported the GDS recommendation for the FTR auction for 2026-2027.

Regarding the earlier discussion in Public Forum about the Behind-the-Meter Solar Project, Council Member Green clarified that, regarding the deadline, if you start a solar project after July 4th, you would then have to complete the project by December of 2027.

Consider Commercial Block Party Application – Mystic Ways

Council Member Worthington raised some concerns about the road closures potentially affecting the surrounding businesses. After some discussion, one suggestion was made by Council Member Laustsen that a business like Maize could let customers with reservations know where to park that day. Discuss Extension of Hours for No Right Turns from Fifth Street onto Hunters Run

Upon a motion by Worthington, seconded by Cornelius, Council unanimously authorized the Solicitor to draft an ordinance extending the “No Right Turns” from Callowhill Street to Hunters Run from 6:30 am to 8:00 am on weekdays, and to advertise a public hearing for discussion and consideration of the ordinance.

Mayor Hollenbach asked the Police Chief if he had any questions about the May 9th situation with Porch Fest, and if he was comfortable with what’s going on. Chief Schurr stated that he doesn’t have any idea of how many people or participants will be there, so he has concerns about staffing levels. He added that now we have 2 roads that are closed off plus the possibility that we’re going to have people having bands on their porches, so we know that it’s probably going to spill out in the roadway and that there’ll be some enforcement issues. Chief Schurr stated that he is confident we’ll be able to handle it with the manpower we have, but we will have to bring some extra manpower in, adding that this wasn’t on the list of events in the police contract for overtime events, so according to the contract, officers will get double-time for that. He stated that we’ll do what we need to do to make the event safe for everybody.

Council Member Green asked the Police Chief when there is a beer crawl in town, if he brings in extra officers for that, and Chief Schurr stated that we don’t, because traditionally when they have that Ale Trail, it’s pretty quiet and uneventful. Council Member Worthington stated that they use a lot of trolleys for transportation for that event, which the Police Chief confirmed, adding that they don’t see a lot of people walking. Chief Schurr stated that when you have events where the roads are closed down, it definitely invites more people to come and be in one area, adding that one of the things that he does like about May 9th is that it’s going to the Owls, adding that’s a great idea to have everybody in one area, off the roadway, at an event site that they’re used to. Council Member Worthington added that they have a parking lot and large field for parking, too, and Chief Schurr stated that everything about that idea was smart.

Council President Schilling clarified that when we do events like the Shop Hop, and people walk around and do scavenger hunts on Saturdays, there’s no increased police presence for those events, and Chief Schurr clarified that there is not. He added that he knows for Porch Fest, people are going to be consuming alcohol, and it’s been their experience in the past that when you have people consuming alcohol, and walking around the town, there’s a possibility that there could be some issues, so we want to make sure we have enough police staff on hand to be able to address those issues, plus, we have officers working a regular shift that are responding to everyday calls, so if they’re on a domestic or mental health call, and they get tied up for an hour or two, we want to make sure we have enough officers that could handle any issues that could potentially happen at the added events that are in town.

Council Member Laustsen asked with the 2 block commercial parties at the same time, if it concerns him to have extra hands on deck for that, and Chief Schurr stated that having 2 events, he will probably bring in at least 2 officers, knowing we have 2 separate locations, and the potential for people that are going have bands on their porches, so he's going to bring 2 extra in. He added that right now, we have full staffing that day, but that could change tomorrow, so he just wants to make sure we have proper staffing.

Council Member Green asked the Police Chief if there were incidents in the past at Porch Fest, and Chief Schurr confirmed that there were – not a large volume of calls, but they were alcohol-related calls.
